MEMORANDUM FOR: Associate Deputy Director for Management and Services

SUBJECT : [REDACTED] Operational Training Course

REFERENCE : Memo dtd 26 June 74 to DCI fm D/OTS; Same Subject

25X1A

1. As I informed you, I was left with the impression on 29 July by [REDACTED] that the [REDACTED] matter was resolved. In effect, [REDACTED] had been told that his services would no longer be required after August 1974. On the basis of this, [REDACTED] and I had agreed not to pursue the matter further.

2. In so far as "the course" is concerned, it is my view, shared by Dr. John R. Tietjen and [REDACTED], the Agency does not need at this time a course like that run by [REDACTED]. As you are aware, OTR with the DDO is about to begin a major review of all operational training. During this review, a principal concern will be the making of a more effective case officer, particularly in the field of recruitment. Any concern with recruitment must consider human motivation, but not necessarily "sensitivity-type" training. In considering the elements of a psychological nature for operational training, OTR will be in close collaboration with the DDO and OMS.
